Communication Skills for Leaders

Cheryl Rondeau-Bassett, Instructor

Communication is an art. It is a basic skill affecting all aspects of our business life and relationships. Words, gestures, appearance, and body language all "speak" volumes as to our intent, state of mind, and attitude. Learning to recognize these conscious and unconscious cues, as well as paying attention to others' signals, make us better communicators and leaders.

In this seminar, you will learn the skills needed to communicate as a leader and give you tools to improve your relationships.

Objectives:

- Learn the nine behavioral skills for effective communication
- Learn the ways to improve your skills as a communicator
- Practice skills to develop communication as a personal art
- Develop an action plan for further improvement

Pre-registration is required

Space is limited to 30.
